

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

Job Description

For a leader Company in providing IT and administration services to the Insurance, Finance and Pensions industry, we are looking for a qualified Software Developer to join its IT team.

You will be designing and producing app solutions for all our business units; you will focus on designing, writing code and enhancing web portals and solutions used for back office operating processes, both in terms of presentations and business logic according to client requirements.

What You'll Be Doing

- Analyze and develop app functionalities for insurance portfolio data processing, pensions and healthcare services
- Design and develop user experience of web users
- Implement API interfaces with Rest/SOA services
- Develop business model logic for complex calculations and controls on integration components with REST / SOA services
- Follow testing and maintenance of the web platform

What You Need

- Significant work experience with Angular JS / Angular
- Knowledge of Vue.js is preferred
- Good work experience with web applications and programming tools such as JavaScript, HTML, HTML5, CSS, CSS3, SASS, LESS
- Degree in Computer science or equivalent field
- Experience in usage and developing Web Services (REST, SOAP)
- Knowledge of design pattern
- Basic understanding of security principles and how to apply them
- Good interpersonal skills, team working, have good analytic and problem solving capabilities

Apply to <https://www.freemindfoundry.com/careers/#intellisync>